

1st International Conference on Law, Translation and Culture

28-30 August, 2011

China University of Political Science and Law

Beijing, China

The First International Conference on Law, Translation and Culture (LTC) invites papers on key issues in Law, Translation and Culture, including, but not limited to:

1. Legal translation
2. Court interpretation
3. Teaching and training in legal translation and court interpreting
4. Ethics for translators and interpreters in legal proceedings
5. Bilingual/multilingual drafting
6. Legal transplant and legal translation
7. Legal culture
8. A cultural approach to legal language and legal translation

The LTC conference is associated with Multicultural Association of Law and Language (MALL) and Research Centre for Legal Translation, China University of Political Science and Law. The theme of the conference is multiculturalism and aims to promote exchange of research from different disciplines related to law, translation and culture and across jurisdictions. This conference will be held just after the International Conference on Law, Language and Discourse 2011 (20-21 August, Hong Kong) and the AILA conference 2011 (23-28 August, Beijing).

All accepted papers will be included in the Proceedings of LTC 2011 published by American Scholars Press, which are indexed by CPCI-SSH/ISSHP. Authors are invited to submit their papers electronically (as .doc attachments) following the instructions on the conference website.

We are also considering an edited volume embracing the topics of the conference and after the conference, we will invite submission of full-length papers.

For more information, please contact us via MALL (MALLORG@live.co.uk), Lijin SHA (hishalijin@hotmail.com) and Le CHENG (chengle163@hotmail.com).
